

Causes of WWI

In a paragraph or two, briefly outline the causes of WWI. Then, in a final paragraph, explain what, in your opinion, is the most important cause of WWI. Provide reasons to support your choice. There is an additional task of submitting the questions you posed to get to your response – please include the questions with your paragraph.

Paragraph writing:

- First sentence: the point you are making.
- Middle sentences: the evidence you have to support the points;
- Concluding sentences: sum up the idea.

Evaluation:

Thinking – using of planning skills – formulating questions

Insufficient	Limited (50-59%)	Some (60-69%)	Considerable (70-79%)	Thorough (80-100%)
R	Limited amount/quality of questions formulated, not all types of questions posed	Some questions formulated, not all types of questions posed	Considerable amount/quality of questions formulated, all types of questions posed	Formulated questions are represented in each category, and are of very high quality.
	1- 1 1+	2- 2 2+	3- 3 3+	4- 4 4+

Knowledge and Understanding of Causes of WWI

Insufficient	Limited (50-59%)	Some (60-69%)	Considerable (70-79%)	Thorough (80-100%)
R	Many causes left unstated/unexplained	Some causes left unstated/unexplained	Causes stated but not explained	Causes stated and explained
	1- 1 1+	2- 2 2+	3- 3 3+	4- 4 4+

Communication – expression and organization of ideas

Insufficient	Limited (50-59%)	Some (60-69%)	Considerable (70-79%)	Thorough (80-100%)
R	Ideas and sentences are disorganized and unclear.	Ideas and sentences are somewhat organized and clear.	Ideas and sentences are clear and organized.	Ideas and sentences are very clear and organized.
	1- 1 1+	2- 2 2+	3- 3 3+	4- 4 4+